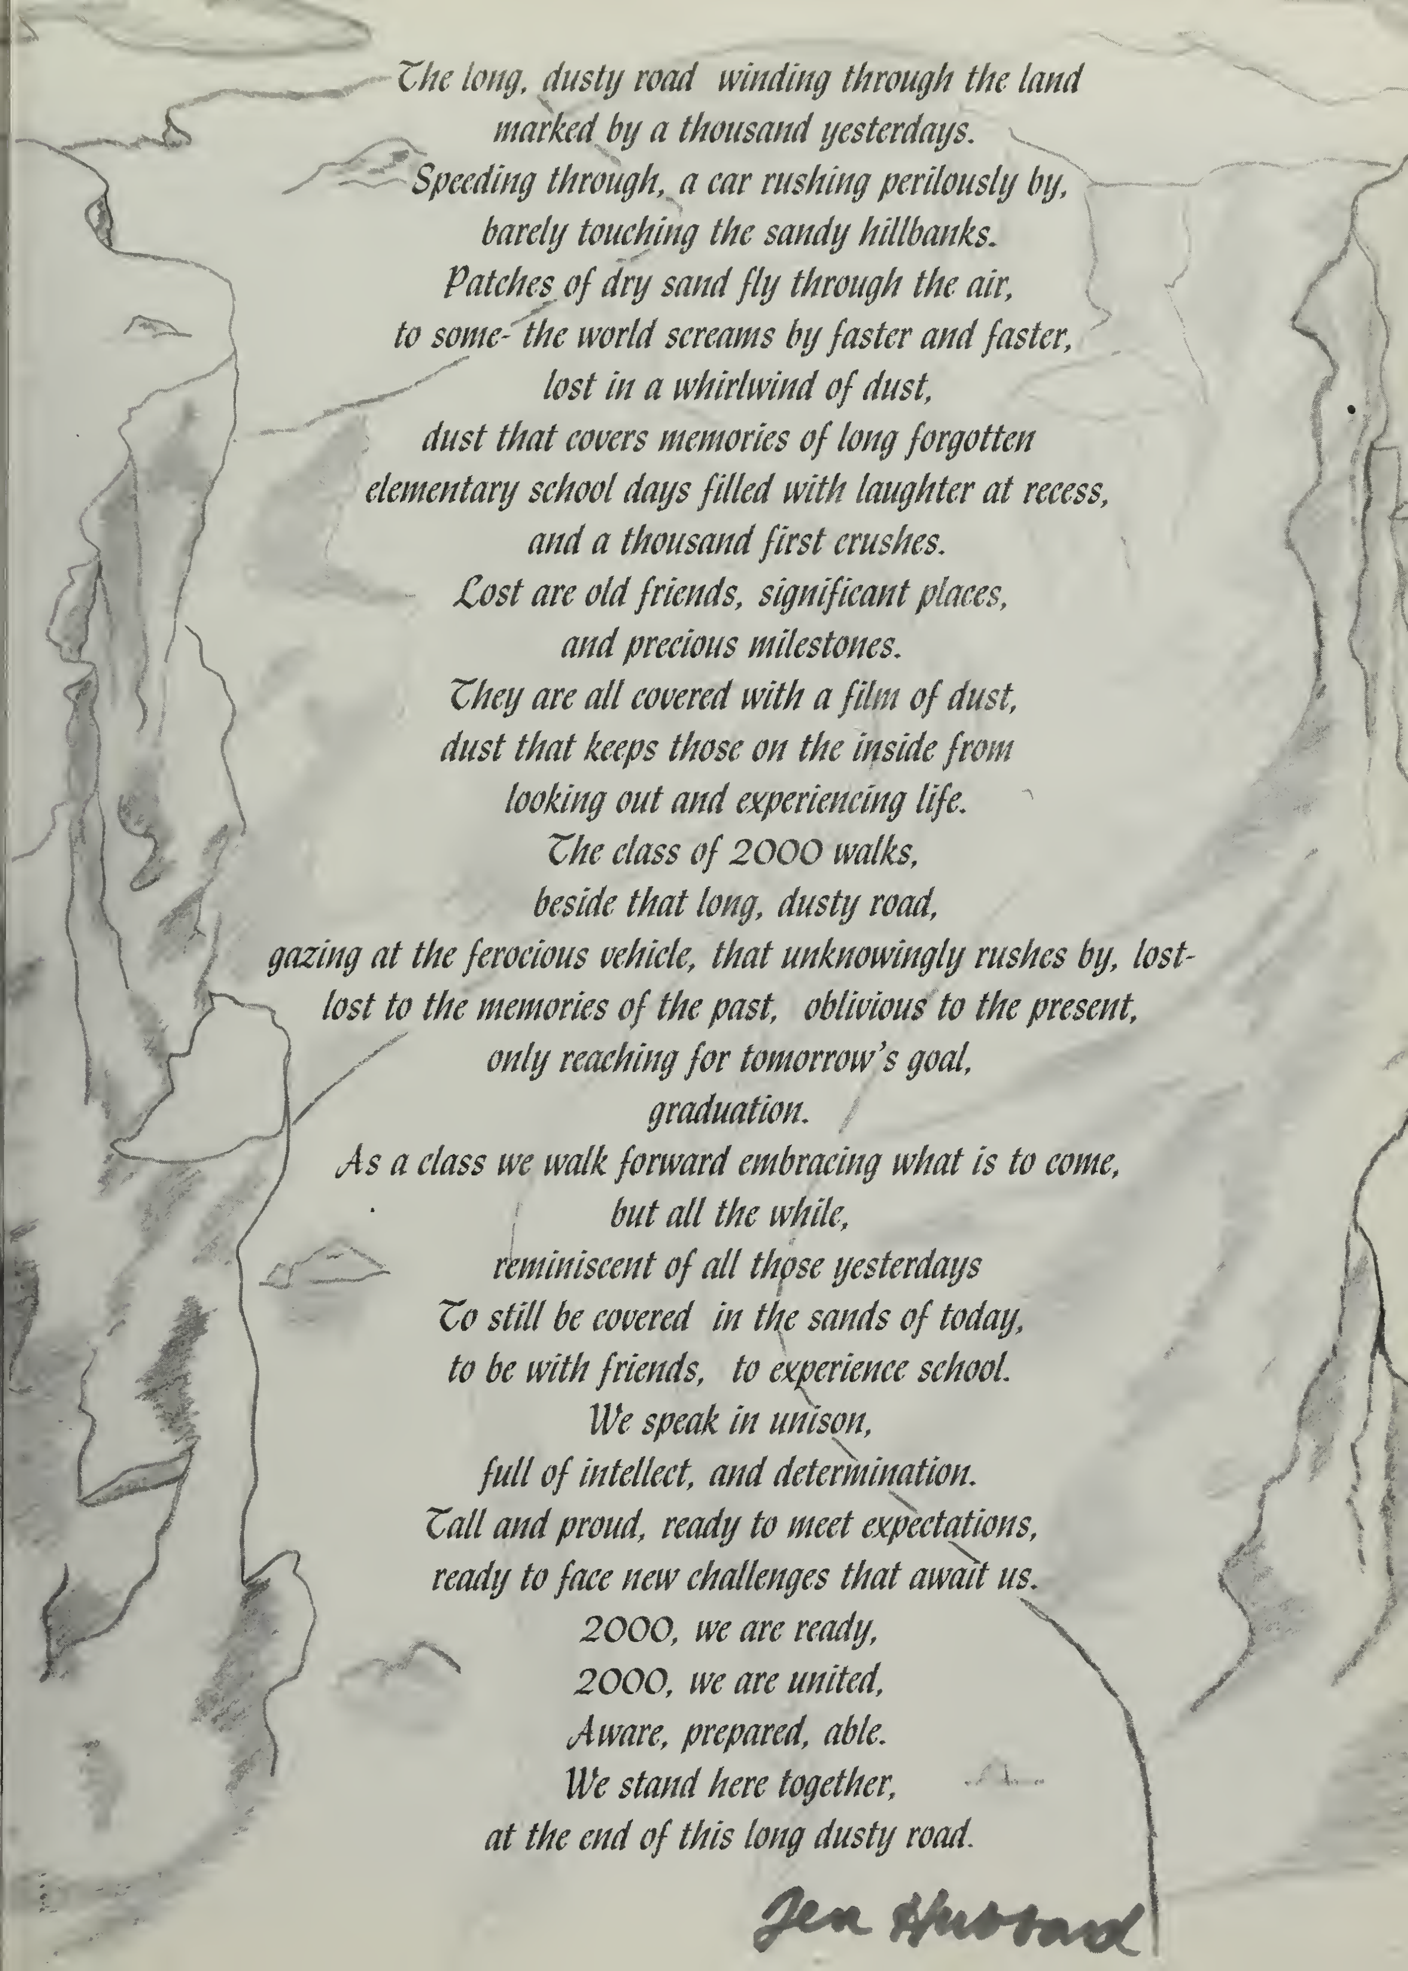
A.P.??

It's been a long day... finally it's time to go home!



The long, dusty road winding through the land marked by a thousand yesterdays.
Speeding through, a car rushing perilously by,
barely touching the sandy hillbanks.
Patches of dry sand fly through the air,
to some- the world screams by faster and faster,
lost in a whirlwind of dust,
dust that covers memories of long forgotten
elementary school days filled with laughter at recess,
and a thousand first crushes.
Lost are old friends, significant places,
and precious milestones.
They are all covered with a film of dust, dust that keeps those on the inside from looking out and experiencing life.
The class of 2000 walks,
beside that long, dusty road,
gazing at the ferocious vehicle, that unknowingly rushes by, lost-
lost to the memories of the past, oblivious to the present,
only reaching for tomorrow's goal,
graduation.
As a class we walk forward embracing what is to come,
but all the while,
reminiscent of all those yesterdays
To still be covered in the sands of today,
to be with friends, to experience school.
We speak in unison,
full of intellect, and determination.
Tall and proud, ready to meet expectations,
ready to face new challenges that await us.
2000, we are ready,
2000, we are united,
Aware, prepared, able.
We stand here together,
at the end of this long dusty road.

As the class of 2000 said goodbye to the senior class of '99', April 9th will always be a night to remember. The crowded dance floor didn't keep us from having the time of our lives. Dressed to impress, we strutted onto the dance floor and danced the night away. The excitement heightened as the court was about to be announced. Lady court members were : Angela Azzolino, Leigh Wagner, Siobhan Coyne, and Juli O'Connor. The gentlemen were: Joe Azzolino, Ben Fuller, Shon Hurley, and Bill Eunson. Crowned King and Queen for the night were Jon Naumowicz and Teri Mercurio.

The Carver Crusaders soccer team, led by co-captains Chris Nardone and Justin Cameron, ended a tough season with an impressive 5-0 win over Hull at home. The Crusaders (6-8-2) had a very competitive schedule, but remained strong and came up just short of a tournament berth. Seniors Nardone, Cameron, Naumowicz, Smith, and Fuller were the backbone of the team, supported by a strong collection of juniors and underclassmen. The graduating seniors would like to thank Coach Carey and Coach A. for a great season. Good luck in years to come!

Seniors: Nicole, Brynn, Andrea, Jenn, Teri, Megan, & Leigh

Finishing second overall in the league, tied with Norwell & Abington, the Girls Varsity Soccer Team had its best season ever. With our new coach Mrs. Petrell, we were able to overcome early obstacles and make our way to the state tournament for the second year in a row. With seven returning seniors and several returning juniors & sophomores the team proved to be very experienced.

This year's leading scorers were Holly Leonard, Justine Hill, & Brynn Madden. Seniors Jenn Savastano, Andrea Malloch, & Nicole Potvin proved that hard work does pay off, combining for many goals and assists on the season. All-Stars Teri Mercurio, Leigh Wagner, & Casey O'Donnell led the defense, along with Megan Moore who had an outstanding season in goal. The seniors would like to wish the returning team the best of luck in the "2000" season!

We fought, we scored, and we won... sometimes!

The Field Hockey Team made tournament for the fourth year in a row and won the first game against Nantucket. The two goals were scored by Jess F., and Angela B. had 23 saves in the net. We lost the second game to Westport ending our post season. Our final record was 9-9-4. Our leading scorers were Captain Vicki H., Heather P., and Jessica F. However, they would not have scored without the help of Rebecca B., Valerie A., Colleen L., and Juli O. Our defense was spectacular with Rookie Julieanne B., Captain Juli O., and Julie K., as the Backs, and Nikki S., and Heather S., as Sweepers switching off at the half. The Goalie, Captain Angela Buffington had 7 shut outs and made 254 saves out of 282 shots.

The amazing Tara P. played great at any position she was put in. Likewise, Felicia at her first year as goalie. The Rookies did a terrific job being put into the game at any situation. They were Alissa B., Kristen S., Meagan F., and Brandy. Next season will be a rebuilding year with the loss of nine seniors.

Carver Football 1999
Season Summary

The 1999 Carver High School Football Team finished the season with an 8-2 record and a second place finish in the South Shore League.

Carver's wishbone offense, that averaged an impressive 24.4 points per game, was led by senior quarterback Ray Tolliver. Bill McDonald became the second back in Carver history to rush for over 1,000 yards in one season. He finished the 1999 season with 1,176 yards total. Todd Eakins provided outstanding blocking out of the backfield and also ran for over 800 yards. Ken Russell, a two-time league all-star at split end, provided the Crusader offense with a deep outside threat. Senior captain Joe Azzolino anchored an outstanding offensive line along with the team's most improved players, Brett Jordan and Mark Hamill.

Perhaps the greatest highlights of 1999 took place on the defensive side of the ball, as the Crusader defense gave up only a total of 7.1 points per game. The Carver defense was rated as the best in Division 4 and one of the top 10 defenses in all of Massachusetts. The defense was led by junior middle linebacker Jason Kingston who averaged over 12 tackles per game. Special honors on defense went out to J.T. Eakins and Jim Nivens along with Todd Eakins.

Carver was awarded with the most league all-stars in school football history with a total of 7. South Shore League All-Stars included: Ken Russell, Ray Tolliver, Joe Azzolino, Todd Eakins, J.T. Eakins, Jason Kingston and Jim Nivens.

Although led by strong seniors Ken Russell and Bill Davenport, the Crusaders had a tough season. Injuries early in the season hurt the team and caused them to lose focus, especially when they lost Ralph Frazier and Tim Ryan. Confidence resurfaced when these players returned, and with two games left to go, the Crusaders are hoping to make tournament. With a record of 8-0-10, the Crusaders are moving on with prospects for the next season, especially since most of the team is returning. Hard work and dedication will allow for a great outlook .

The Girls Varsity Basketball team had an exciting season this year. Needing to win their last regular season game against Hull to make the tournament, the girls proved that they weren't giving up. Defeating Hull 56-39, the Crusaders made the Mass State Tournament for the second consecutive year, with a record of 10-10. Having a small team of only 12, the team was able to become extremely close. The team was led by captains Megan Moore, Siobhan Coyne, & Leigh Wagner, along with seniors Andrea Malloch, Nicole Caso and Michelle Allsop. Other players were juniors Casey O'Donnell, Kristin Jellison, & Stacia Gillen, sophomore Katie Tauber and freshmen Megan Jesse and Justine Hill. This year's all-stars were Megan Moore and Megan Jesse. We will always remember our sleepovers and the pre-game ditty. The seniors would like to thank Coach B., Tony, & James for all their hard work and support & Nikki for her dedication to the team. We would also like to wish our girls good luck next year and thank them for the wonderful memories.

"The young faces shown in these pictures represent times when our biggest worries were Barbie and Ken's weddin GI Joe's missing arm, and why we had to eat vegetables at dinner . . . Again. Looking at these pictures today, som times we, the seniors, wish we could go back to such carefree days. But at the same time, we're moving on with o lives, making new memories, and gaining independence. These have become exciting realities that were once ide that seemed so far away. Since sixth grade we have counted the days until graduation. Now as the day approaches are still anticipating, but somewhat nervous. The faces in these pictures remind us of the people we once and still a the friends we have grown up with and also with whom we will graduate. Surviving these past twelve years wasn't ways easy, but in that time we had some of the best experiences of our lives. Those times are what made it wort while."

Continue to shoot for the moon, you've already reached the stars!!

Today a lot of things happened... Like holding you for the very first time then watching you take your first step. Today we watched you grow and blossom, from Beauty-bras and Brittany tails to make-up and pretty nails, sixth grade dances not so long ago, all the way to senior prom. Graduation from pre-school, to graduation day from high school- so many things happened today, and all are held in our hearts forever. You have made our dreams come true watching you become all that you are. As today fades to yesterday, hold in your heart "Today" for it is a true gift that's why its called "The Present". Know that tomorrow holds all your ambitions, goals and dreams. I love you as many leaves are on trees and stars in the sky and more. As you live today, dream for tomorrow and remember our love forever. I'll see you in the a.m., it's better that the...

When you were born Mom wanted to name you Ashley and Dad said Jennifer Lynn, so you should know that you were Daddy's little girl. Snuggling and falling asleep in my arms every night, funny noses and pig tails, softball games and trips to Maine, all the special times that we were able to share. These memories make a heart feel warm and looking back they weren't really so long ago. Keep your memories in your heart and cherish them forever, and through life's ups and downs think back to all those great memories and know how much I love you and how proud I am of you.

Jake,

You have become the person that Father would be proud of. We are so very pleased to be part of your life and are excited to see what the rest of your life brings to you. We're sure the best is yet to come.

I saw her first in March
When they said, "You have a little girl,"
I waited long to hear those words
So she became my joy.

And every time her birthday came
I saw her growing tall,
And then she started off to school
In just no time at all.

It seemed I only turned around
And she was in her teens,
She went around in funny hats
And had her favorite jeans.

Then football and softball filled her life
Her high school days were fun,
And in her private treasure box
Went medals she had won.

And often when she came back home
From being out so late
She'd whisper at my bedroom door,
"Mom, are you still awake?"

Then we would talk for a little while
Before she went to bed,
And I would often breathe a prayer
"God bless my Joelle," I said.

Joelle, thank you for being you
...we are so proud of you
...now go and conquer the world!!

Jillian Noel Stone,

It was a couple of days before Christmas, back in 1981, when God looked down from heaven above and chose us to be the ones...

He gave us a special gift, a beautiful child with a smile that will always be deep in our souls.

As the years went on and we watched you grow from an infant, to a toddler, into a small child, to a little girl, and through adolescence, you have added to our lives a spark so bright, that we glow...

Now you are a beautiful young woman, who is preparing to move on. With you take our hopes and dreams and our love and prayers. We are very proud of you,,Jillian. As you begin your journey from here to the stars... bring with you our best wishes, along with Health, Happiness and Peace...

We love you "The Whole Wide World",
